Dear Mrs. Wilson:

The birth record for John Charles Keenan was not placed on file in this office at the time of the birth of this boy. The mother, who is now in Washington, sent the enclosed copy to have a certified copy made therefrom. Our new law prohibits us from doing this, without an affidavit, and as your name and Dr. Jennings is mentioned on the back of certificate, I am taking the liberty of sending same to you for the signature of the physician, and if that is not possible at this time, will you kindly sign it as the nurse in attendance, in order to avoid further delay? Otherwise it would be necessary to return all papers to Washington for affidavit etc.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter, we are,

Very truly yours,

In reply to your inclosed letter, the error made in the information sent in for birth certificate of Eugene Burton Hecker, was on the part of the notary. She did not add the surname of Hecker to Elmer Burton the natural blood father of Eugene the son.

Elmer Burton is the full given name of father and Hecker the surname of both Elmer and Eugene.

Elmer Burton Hecker the father's full name and

Eugene Burton Hecker the son's full name.
